Auckland Star newspaper 17 May 1902

Many will learn with regret that Mr Robert Alfred Burgess died at his residence Murdoch Road yesterday. The deceased gentleman was well known and highly respected. He had been a very efficient secretary to the Auckland Builder's Association for two years past. As a building surveyor and as a draughtsman he had for some time prior to his death been engaged in the Harbour Board Engineer's office. Mr Burgess was attended by Dr Williams for cancer in the throat and it was from this disease that he died yesterday after several weeks of patient suffering.
