George was the oldest son of William and Mary DE THIERRY and greatly respected in the Huntly area. A clean living gentleman with a brilliant business brain. Owned a timber mill and ran a successful flax cutting contract employing a large labour force. His father practically built the Waikare Pa with George as the instigator. He was very musical and played most instruments. Stood for parliament in the Huntly area for the National Party and was involved in most social and economical affairs. Was very active in the King movement.
