They came to NZ on the Warrior Queen left Gravesend 01 November 1865(1866) voyage of 84 days Settled in Port Chalmers region lived in a tent on the slopes of Mopanui and then moved to the property at Purakanui where they built a "wattle and daub" cottage later replaced by the homestead named "Asleigh" (sold by family 1956) will still stands today but renamed "Matariki".

Obituary November 1918 = John FOOTE – Purakanui has again to mourn the loss of one of its oldest pioneers in the person of Mr John Foote. Just a week previous to his death his wife died and this no doubt along with an attack of pleurisy hastened his end. Mr Foote was born in Somersetshire in 1839 and at the age of 13 years he went to sea. After two year he with several members of the crew ran away in Australia and got employed on a station. Six months later he joined another vessel in Sydney and remained at sea till he got his masters certificate. In 1865 he left the sea to get married and came to New Zealand arriving at Port Chalmers in 1866. On arrival he tried his hand at gold digging but with little success. Returning to Dunedin he purchased a farm at Purakanui where he has resided ever since. He was always a prominent and able citizen taking part in all things pertaining to the welfare of the district. He was one of those instrumental in establishing a school in the district and for many years he served as chairman, committeeman and clerk. He also served many years as a member of the Blueskin Road Board and later served 18 years as councilor and twice as chairman of the Waikouaiti County Council. The funeral took place at Pukakanui on Sunday and was largely attended. A family of five sons and five daughters survived.

“Port Chalmers and its people” by Ian Church (1994) it refers to John and Charlotte having died during the influenza epidemic of 1918 chapter 10 – The Blighted Years

100 years ago from the files of “The Otago Times 01 February 1866 – The ship Warrior Queen left Gravesend on 01 November 1865 with 11 first-cabin, 4 second-cabin, 55 STEERAGE PASSENGERS. On 04 November the pilot left her off the Isle of Wight experienced variable winds and weather up to the 09 when she had strong gales from the eastward with a heavy confused sea afterwards experience favorable winds and weather as far as Tristan d’Acunha. Thence she met a succession of westley gales passing the Cape on the 29 of December. On the 09 January passed a large iceberg and after that date had strong gales from the westward passing the Snares on the 27 and arriving off the Port on the morning of the 28th – thus making the passage from the time of landing her pilot to arriving off the Port in 84 days. During the passage there was one birth on board and all the passengers arrived well. The vessel is consigned to Messrs Dalgety, Rattray and Co.

2- Thomas FOOTE born about 1845 (23 November 1840) died 1908 Caversham Dunedin (never married)

Census age 16 occupation Tailor

Thomas FOOTE sailed from Victoria Australia on the “Latona” in October 1861 at the age of 21. Making a birth date of 1840, which may match the above Thomas. He may have been at the Victoria goldfields before trying his luck at Otago goldfields. It is believed that he went to sea at an early age like his brothers John and Francis.

Thomas is believed to have been a Publican at the an old gold mining town of St Bathans Otago
