Sarah Ann SWAN had a daughter Mary Jane FRANCIS who was born about 1847 Hutt New Zealand. Mary Jane FRANCIS was thought to have been the daughter of Sarah’s parents but she was actually the illegitimate daughter of Sarah Ann FRANCIS and this was confirmed on her 1866 Intention to marry application.

According to a Coroner’s report Stephen and Sarah had a daughter named Mary Ann SWAN but I have been unable to locate her birth registration.

There was an 1852 birth for Mary SWAN registered as 1852 folio 1193 Auckland district. In the district keys the Auckland registration district numbers ran from 329 to 434 so perhaps folio 1193 could be an error and this may be Stephen and Sarah daughter Mary Ann SWAN. The website registration 1852/977 also recorded Auckland district but there was also other birth registration for Mary Ann SWAN for 1857 folio website 1857/1887 and 1859 folio website 1859/2800 parents not recorded. Further research will have to be done to confirm which Mary Ann SWAN belongs to Stephen and Sarah SWAN.

Coroners report

Request on Ellen SWAN, Held at the Farriers Arms, The Hutt March 7th 1861

Inparments of witnesses taken this the seventh day of day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty one in the district of the Hutt in the Province of Wellington at the dwelling house of Charles MUDGEWAY be known by the sign of the Farriers

Arms in the said district before Mark KEBBELL gentleman Coroner for the said district touching the death of Ellen SWAN then and there lying dead as follows.

Mary Ann SWAN being duly sworn

The deceased Ellen SWAN is my sister on Thursday last at about ten o'clock I went to look after my deceased sister and the day making a noise I followed this to the bank of the river and I found my sister on a snag a few yards from the bank it was further off than I could reach but I went into the water and took her out and I carried her home and Ann STEWART came and assisted me. We took her clothes off and wrapped her up in a blanket and sent for Dr Boer our Surgeon. The deceased had not been out of my sight more than a quarter of an hour she is three years old. The river is not more than ten or twelve yards from my house. I have a father & mother but the child was in my charge she appeared quite dead when I found her. There was a little boy close by at the time I found the deceased sitting with his two feet in the water between three & four years old. He was my brother (John).

Stewart Being duly sworn

On Tuesday morning last at about ten o'clock I saw Mary Ann SWAN picking the deceased Ellen SWAN out of the water and I ran to her and before I got there Mary Ann SWAN had undressed the child and I took the deceased in my arms and wrapped her in a blanket and held her to the fire when I saw she was dead. I had never seen the child before Ann STEWART

The above information were severally taken and acknowledged the day year and place first above mentioned before Mark KEBBELL Coroner

ORDER (Reference RGO NZ death registration 1905 folio website 1905/4928 age 73 born about 1832)

Wairarapa Daily Times newspaper 14 July 1905

Still another old Carterton pioneer has passed away in the persons of Mr Charles Henry Zabell whose death occurred on Tuesday night. The late Mr Zabell whose age was seventy-three years was born at Dantzig in the year 1832 and from there went to Aberdeen and on to New Zealand. The vessel on which he sailed was the "Princess of Fife" and touched at Port Chalmers in 1852. He went to Auckland during the Maori war and also spent some time in the Waikato district and was in the company with Sergeant Nolan when the officer was shot while carrying despatches. He visited the Shotover and Gabriel Gully gold diggings and soon after was married at Waihi. From there he came on to the Wairarapa and after a short stay went to Napier from which place he returned to the Wairarapa and engaged in the bridge building trade, some of his works being still in evidence over the Waingawa, Taueru and Ruamahunga rivers and one at Castlepoint. The late Mr Zabell purchased land on the banks of Mangatarere river Belverdere and endured all the hardships of the early days. He leaves a widow, four daughters and one son (all married) and a number of grandchildren to mourn their loss.

Mary Ann SWAN being sworn

Request on Ellen SWAN, Held at the Farriers Arms, The Hutt March 7th 1861
The deceased Ellen SWAN is my sister on Thursday last at about ten o'clock I went to look after my deceased sister and the day making a noise I followed this to the bank of the river and I found my sister on a snag a few yards from the bank it was further off than I could reach but I went into the water and took her out and I carried her home and Ann STEWART came and assisted me We took her clothes off and wrapped her up in a blanket and sent for Dr Boer our Surgeon. The deceased had not been out of my sight more than a quarter of an hour she is three years old. The river is not more than ten or twelve yards from my house. I have a father & mother but the child was in my charge she appeared quite dead when I found her There was a little boy close by at the time I found the deceased sitting with his two feet in the water between three & four years old. He was my brother.

Stewart Being duly sworn

On Tuesday morning last at about ten o'clock I saw Mary Ann SWAN picking the deceased Ellen SWAN out of the water and I ran to her and before I got there Mary Ann SWAN had undressed the child and I took the deceased in my arms and wrapped her in a blanket and held her to the fire when I saw she was dead I had never seen the child before Ann STEWART

Coroners report

Request on Ellen SWAN, Held at the Farriers Arms, The Hutt March 7th 1861

Inparments of witnesses taken this the seventh day of day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty one in the district of the Hutt in the Province of Wellington at the dwelling house of Charles MUDGEWAY be known by the sign of the Farriers Arms in the said district before Mark KEBBELL gentleman Coroner for the said district touching the death of Ellen SWAN then and there lying dead as follows.

Mary Ann SWAN being duly sworn

The deceased Ellen SWAN is my sister on Thursday last at about ten o'clock I went to look after my deceased sister and the day making a noise I followed this to the bank of the river and I found my sister on a snag a few yards from the bank it was further off than I could reach but I went into the water and took her out and I carried her home and Ann STEWART came and assisted me. We took her clothes off and wrapped her up in a blanket and sent for Dr Boer our Surgeon. The deceased had not been out of my sight more than a quarter of an hour she is three years old. The river is not more than ten or twelve yards from my house. I have a father & mother but the child was in my charge she appeared quite dead when I found her. There was a little boy close by at the time I found the deceased sitting with his two feet in the water between three & four years old. He was my brother (John).

Stewart Being duly sworn

On Tuesday morning last at about ten o'clock I saw Mary Ann SWAN picking the deceased Ellen SWAN out of the water and I ran to her and before I got there Mary Ann SWAN had undressed the child and I took the deceased in my arms and wrapped her in a blanket and held her to the fire when I saw she was dead. I had never seen the child before Ann STEWART

The above information were severally taken and acknowledged the day year and place first above mentioned before Mark KEBBELL Coroner

#Drowning Fatality – (by Telegraph – Press Association) Kawhia this day – A young married man named Mark Lickfold was accidentally drowned while crossing the Puti River on the way to the Kawhia township on Friday night. A verdict of accidentally drowned was returned and a rider was added that the Government be recommended to place an endless wire with a boat at the spot to allow of safe crossing at all tides. This is the first case of a pakaha being drowned here. Deceased who belonged to Pahiatua leaves a young widow and on child. The sad affair has cast quite a gloom over the place reference National Library of NZ papers past website Auckland Star newspaper 24 December 1900 page 5
