Levin Notes from our own correspondent – A pretty wedding solemnised in Levin Methodist Church on Wednesday afternoon the contracting parties being Mr Fred Castle Wellington and Miss Mabel Sussex daughter of Mrs C Palk Levin. The church was beautifully decorated and there were a large number of friends of both parties present. Miss Castle (sister of bridegroom), Miss Ivy Dixon (niece of the bridegroom) and Misses Eva and Irene Sussex (nieces of the bride) acted as bridesmaids, while Mr T G Vincent and Mr G Castle (brother) acted as best man and groomsman respectively. The Rev T F Jones preformed the ceremony and Mrs C C Nation played the Wedding March on the organ. Afternoon tea was served after the ceremony and the happy couple left by the evening train on route for Wanganui and Taranaki. The bride will be much missed in Levin having been an energetic worker for the Methodists Church, the temperance cause and the Christian Endeavour Society and latter presented her with a salad bowl and service. She is also in elocutionists of a high order.

A very pretty wedding which was celebrated at the Methodist Church Levin on Wednesday afternoon of last week was that of Mr Fred Castle chemist of Wellington to Miss Mabel Sussex youngest daughter of Mrs C Palk Levin. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion. Mr Castle had with him Mr T G Vincent best man and Mr G Castle (a brother) as groomsman. The bridesmaids were Miss Castle (sister of bridegroom), Miss Ivy Dixon (niece of the bridegroom) and the Misses Eva and Irene Sussex (nieces of the bride).

The brides dress was of cream embroidered crepe-de-chine trimmed with lace and silver tassels. Miss Castle the chief bridesmaid, wore a pale pink figured vogue trimmed with black velvet. Miss Dixon wore a white lawn dress trimmed with embroidery and pale green ribbon, and hat to match, and carried a bouquet of anemones and narcissi. The Misses Sussex wore white nainsook [sic] dresses also trimmed with embroidery and heliotiope ribbons, they carried bridesmaids baskets. Miss C C Nation played the Wedding March. The brides going away dress was a fawn cloth with white hat trimmed with roses.

Frederick CASTLE became a Councillor for the Upper Hutt Borough Council in 1937

Evening Post newspaper 12 October 1937

Mr F Castle was last evening appointed a councillor at Upper Hutt to fill the vacancy in the West Ward caused by the resignation of Mr A Howell. Mr Castle is a member and ex-chairman of the Wellington Hospital Board and is an ex-Wellington City Councillor. The Upper Hutt Borough Councillor filled the vacancy by special resolution to avoid the expenses of a by-election in view of the fact that the municipal elections will be held in May of next year.

Upper Hutt Weekly Review newspaper 22 October 1937

Upper Hutt Borough Council – The Borough Council met on Monday evening last the Mayor Mr A J McCurdy presiding over a full meeting. His worship welcomed Mr Castle to the council table remarking that his experience on other bodies should be of assistance to the borough. Councillor Castle replying said he hoped to be of service to the district during the short term he would be in office between now and the next election.

- #Levin Notes from our own correspondent – A pretty wedding solemnised in Levin Methodist Church on Wednesday afternoon the contracting parties being Mr Fred Castle Wellington and Miss Mabel Sussex daughter of Mrs C Palk Levin. The church was beautifully decorated and there were a large number of friends of both parties present. Miss Castle (sister of bridegroom), Miss Ivy Dixon (niece of the bridegroom) and Misses Eva and Irene Sussex (nieces of the bride) acted as bridesmaids, while Mr T G Vincent and Mr G Castle (brother) acted as best man and groomsman respectively. The Rev T F Jones preformed the ceremony and Mrs C C Nation played the Wedding March on the organ. Afternoon tea was served after the ceremony and the happy couple left by the evening train on route for Wanganui and Taranaki. The bride will be much missed in Levin having been an energetic worker for the Methodists Church, the temperance cause and the Christian Endeavour Society and latter presented her with a salad bowl and service. She is also in elocutionists of a high order reference Paper past website Manawatu Times newspaper 17 September 1909
