Township of Wakatiki (Emerytown) was a 1913 development in the Upper Hutt district. In early years Wakatiki / Whakatiki was referred to as Moonshine. The land was owned by J Emery of part section No 92. The Department of Lands records read “There is no town in the immediate vicinity and the name suggested is Wakatiki with Emerytown as an alternative”. Stephen Street was dedicated in 1913. In 1924 Charles Edward Clark owner and developer of Township of Wakatiki Extension No 2 included additions to the north side of Stephen Street.
