Resident Magistrates Court Upper Hutt Wednesday 13 July 1864 William Francis v John Hagan Damages 10s Adjourned to the 27th July & John Hagan c Alfred Perry Detinue £1 Plaintiff had lost a pocket book containing a £1 note and some silver. The pocket book was found by defendant and returned to the owner less the £1 note and the plaintiff sued to recover. On being examined the defendant said the bull had eaten the note and that the animal was accustomed to eat boots &c. It being impossible to recover from the bull judgment was given for defendant costs 5s. It must have been a clever bull to open the pocket book and select the note to eat.

Another pioneer settler Mrs Christina Hagan died on Thursday last at the advance age of 90 years. Mrs Hagan sailed from Ireland for Victoria in the old Cornwall. After living there for about four years she together with her husband arrived in the Dominion in the ship Bella Schones and landed on the beach opposite Barrett's Hotel. She then took up land in the Upper Hutt district where she was resided for 57 years. "Granny" as she was familiarly called was widely known and greatly respected by all who knew her. She went through all the troublesome times and many were the stirring accounts she could relate of the hardships of the early settlers. She could speak Maori fluently. Her funeral took place on Saturday last at the Upper Hutt and was largely attended. Mrs Hagan leaves a family of four daughters and two sons and numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren

#Supreme Court Monday 06 June 1864 Regina v Richard Hagan Arson - Richard Hagan a boy of 10 years of age was indicted for setting fire to a stack of hay on the 18th day of April last the property of Alfred Perry. The prisoner was defended by Mr Allen. Mr Izard opened the case and called - Tena Wheta - I live at the Hutt I know the prisoner I recollect the 18th April last I saw the prisoner on that day near our place about 5 o'clock in the morning he was driving some cattle that is all I saw at that time I saw him set a light to the hay about 7 o'clock he set fire to the hay-stack with a fire stick a fire was burning near the sack from which he got the fire stick I saw him go and fetch the fire stick and set fire to the hay it belonged to Mr Perry the hay stack was burning and the boy ran away and E Paua went to call the owner many of us saw it we were only a short distance from the boy. Cross examined by Mr Allen I knew the boy before I had seen him that morning before, we lived nearer the stack than where the boy was the first time, the Boy was driving the cattle he passed our place and drove them past the hay stack he did not see us the first time there were three men and several women present, I saw him again between 5 and 7 the boy was there all the time looking after the cattle when the stack was burning he ran away he left the cattle to set fire to the hay stack. I think it was on Monday the fire was a big one, had been burning for some time and was about nine yards from the stack. Mr Perry set a light to the logs the boy knew that the Maori were present about 7 o'clock, he talks Maori I called out Perry's stack is burning the boy went home to his father's house. E Kraitua and Piripi Tiri Kingi, two other natives were examined and corroborated the evidence of the first witness. Christiana Hagan I am the mother of the prisoner he is turned 10 years of age he can read but not write he has been taught the "belief" and he understands religion very well for his age. Mr Allen on behalf of the prisoner addressed the Jury at some length and quoted law authorities showing that children between 7 and 14 years of age cannot be convicted of certain offences when no malice or craftiness was shown. The Crown Prosecutor then withdrew the case and his Honor directed the Jury to return a verdict of "Not guilty" and after admonishing the boy he was discharged from custody reference National Library of NZ papers past New Zealand Spectator and Cooks Strait Guardian 08 June 1864 page 3

#Resident Magistrates Court This day - Selling Liquor on Sunday - Isaac Wilkins appeared on an information charging him with a breach of the Publican's Act by selling liquor in his licensed house the Railway Hotel at the Upper Hutt on Sunday the 17th inst. Mr Buckley appeared for the defendant. Constable Gillespie stationed at the Hutt deposed that early on the evening of the date referred to he entered the hotel and saw "several men drinking in one of the rooms. A person named Sircom was there amongst the number with Hagan, Valentine and others the defendant was not quite sober although he could not be called drunk. To Mr Buckley was sure that the parties in the room were not all travellers several of them might have had their meals in the house. Sircom for instance but Valentine was not quite in a fit state to have been served with drink. Richard Hagan deposed to having been in the hotel on the day referred to he went in on business with Mr Wilkins and when talking with him Valentine offered to shout and he accepted a drink immediately on which the constable came in. None of them were drunk although they were slightly "merry". Valentine was not drunk and witness did not see him tumble off his horse. Note the report ends with the defendant was accordingly discharged reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Evening Post newspaper 25 June 1877 page 2

#At the Upper Hutt Resident Magistrate's Court yesterday Richard Hagan a railway porter was called upon to show cause why he should not contribute towards the support of the illegitimate child of Mary Ann Pearson of which he was the putative father. The girl was the daughter of a respectable widow living in the neighbourhood and her evidence left no doubt that the defendant had seduced her under most heartless circumstances. In Court Hagan behaved in a most impudent manner and when he was told he would have to pay 10s a week towards the support of his child he coolly replied that he could not afford to pay so much and would not do it. He also remarked that so long as he was not sent to prison he did not care what order the Court made reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Evening Post newspaper 13 June 1878 page 2

#Resident Magistrates Court This Day - John Magee was charged with assaulting Edward Sheehan. Edward Sheehan the prosecutor said he had occasion to go to defendant's house to ask him to come and feed his horses a disturbance was going on between defendant and his daughter defendant was running after her with an axe defendant ordered witness off and then threw the axe at him it inflicted a slight cut in his forehead witness did not think defendant meant to cut him and did not know whether the blow was intended for him or for defendant's daughter. Defendant said he objected to plaintiff coming to his house he would not have any drunken persons coming to his house. Sergeant Monaghan said he had known the defendant a long time as a public nuisance, being a notorious drunkard. His Worship said that defendant had made his case much worse by his own defence and might think himself very lucky he was not sent to the Supreme Court when he would have been liable to 3 years penal servitude. He certainly could not do less than give him the full punishment prescribed by the act for a common assault. Committed for three calendar months with hard labour reference National Library NZ Papers past website Evening Post newspaper 05 February 1874 page 2

#Resident Magistrate's Court This Day (Before JC Crawford Esq. RM) Felony - Edward Sheehan and John Gallagher were brought up on remand charged with stealing from the person. William Spriggs deposed that he was in labour living at the Upper Hutt he was at Waldin's Hotel on Saturday week in the evening he was drinking but was not drunk until after 8 o'clock, his recollection was clear up to that hour he had at that time in his pocket a silver

lover watch with brass Albert curb chain, a purse containing £5 and £1 note, a wedding ring, some silver, a tobacco pouch containing cut tobacco, some boxes of matches, and a knife [articles produced in Court and identified] he came to his senses a little before daylight on Sunday morning in the road he found then that he had got two black eyes, one of his hands had been trodden on and was very sore, and he missed all the property described he wandered about until daylight and went back to Waldin's met there the two prisoners and Gallagher gave him the watch told them he had some money and asked for it Gallagher said "I have not taken it, the watch is all I took from you," witness then spoke about the ring and said he would not lose it for any money as it was his wife's wedding ring Gallagher then felt in his pocket, and gave him the ring told them he had lost other things Gallagher then pulled one box of matches out of his pocket, and showed it to witness, saying, "That is one of yours" witness then reported the robbery to Constable Lyster never saw the men before and did not see them that night at Walden's. Cross-examined by the prisoner Gallagher - I do not know at what time of night I got the black eyes I am positive you are the man who gave me back the watch and ring, I cannot say whether I had any money in my pocket when I lost the things, but I had when I last recollect, between 8 and 9 o'clock I don't remember leaving or going up the road or being brought back by two men, or fighting with them, or having a drink out of a brandy bottle on the road up, or anything at all after the time I have stated. Constable Lyster stated that on the robbery being reported to him he went to Waldin's, found Sheehan there and searched him the complainant had previously given witness a description of the articles he had lost, except the tobacco pouch and knife the tobacco pouch had a steel spring told Sheehan to open it, he could not, so witness opened it with his knife, and found in it some cut tobacco and melons seeds gave it him back saw Spriggs on Monday and he then mentioned that he also had lost a tobacco pouch and knife he gave an exact description of the one found on Sheehan the day before went with Spriggs to the railway line found Sheehan and asked him for the pouch he denied having it in his possession, so witness took him into custody then searched the tents of both prisoners and found the missing knife in a bag. Sprigg was with witness at the time and identified the knife. Sheehan simply denied the charge. Gallagher stated that they found Spriggs very drunk and with two black eyes on which they took care of him and also took charge of his property which they returned to him next morning. John Enwright labourer, deposed that he was at Waldin's on the occasion from 7 till 11.30 pm he saw Spriggs there drunk at 8 o'clock and then again at 11. Sheehan put him on a sofa and attended to his eyes which were bruised Spriggs went to bed, but then came down again and they all went out together after having another drink from a bottle of brandy bought by Spriggs it was sold to him by Harris they only got a short distance and then Spriggs would go no further, so at Sheehan's advice, Gallagher took charge of his money, &c (witness being present at the time), to return it to him next morning. Inspector Atchison said that after this evidence he thought it useless to go on with the case, as no jury would convict. His Worship dismissed the case, and the prisoners were discharged reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Evening Post newspaper 28 May 1875 page 2

#Killed by a fall of gravel - Sad Accident at Russell Vale Gravel Pit. Death of Edward Sheehan at about half past seven last (Tuesday) evening. Mr JW Jones reported to the police that a man named Edward Sheehan who was working in a gravel pit in a tunnel at Russell Vale, was accidentally killed by & fall of gravel. It appears that Sheehan and another man were filling a dray in the tunnel, when a fall of gravel etc., took place striking Sheehan and partially burying him under it. The other man dug Sheehan out and sent for Mr Jones who lives close by the scene of the accident and on the latter's arrival the sufferer was put in the dray and taken to town where he died soon after his arrival. Dr Connolly was sent for but he could not attend at the time and instructed the messenger to have the injured man taken to the Hospital, but he was dead when the messenger returned. Sheehan was about 72 years of age and was working for Mr John Gordon contractor, residing near St. John's railway station, and the body now lies at Mr Gordon's residence, awaiting the inquest. The inquest has been arranged to be held at four o'clock this afternoon at the Courthouse, before Mr Lifficon deputy coroner reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Wanganui Herald newspaper 24 April 1895 page 2

#Resident Magistrate's Court Yesterday - Wm. Edward Sheehan a boy aged 11 years and 10 months was charged with stealing on March 21st a watch belonging to William Roil of Stoke. The accused admitted the offence. The Rev Father Mahoney asked that the case might be dealt with summarily. He said the lad had only just been committed to the Industrial School from Wellington. He would like those having charge of the Industrial School to try and see what they could do in assisting the boy to reform and he asked his Worship not to send the boy to prison. William Roil on oath stated. This day week I was working cleaning a ditch out near Stoke. I started work at eight o'clock in the morning and put my waistcoat, in which was my watch and chain, together with a basket in which was my dinner, near the hedge and covered the lot over with my coat. I saw the accused afterwards about the spot. About half past ten, wanting a bottle of tea, I went to where I had placed the things, when I found my watch and chain and dinner were gone. I went in search of the boy and overtook him near the brick yard. I took the watch and chain from him and then took him to the Police Station. No conversation ensued between us. His Worship ordered that the boy should receive six strokes with a birch rod, and that he be taken back to the #Sheehan's Execution - The Condemned Man's Statement. The following statement was written by the condemned man and addressed to the Rev Father Cummings to whom it was handed by Governor Cleary Lyttelton Goal July 19th 1897. I now make this statement in regard to my guilt in murdering one Alice Lawcock. I did commit the murder which I have to die for. But I never saw my folly until it was too late. I now turn my desires to God in preparing a place in the next world and I hope and trust my case will be an example for perhaps hundreds of others who may be walking in my footprints. I now forgive everyone who has been in any way connected in my case against me, for the law of the land is just and I am willing to pay the penalty in this world for these deeds that I have committed, hoping that God will forgive me in the next world and pardon my soul, as I am sorry for having committed such a dreadful crime. And I hope Mrs Lawcock will forgive me for taking the life of her daughter and anyone connected with her. I also thank Mr Cleary, the Governor of the Gaol and officers under his charge for their kindness to me without exceeding their duty or going beyond their duty. I would also ask if this could be published after my death as it may be an example to others wandering about the world unprotected with the mercy of God. I thank God for the time I received from his hands to turn back to the Church which I have long deserted. I can also say I never had any luck since I turned away from the Church I was brought up in. And I also thank the Rev Father Cummings for his assistance and the zeal he has shown in trying to prepare my soul for peace with God in the next world. I thank him for coming at any time and in any weather whenever he was wanted, frequently at great inconvenience to himself. I thank the Sisters of Mercy for visiting me in my distress also I thank all who in any way were of assistance to me while in HM Prison Lyttelton. I make this statement freely no one pressed me. William Edward Sheehan. PS - I don't think it is needed to say any more about the crime I committed but I am very sorry for it and I must say I knew right from wrong. The statement goes on to bid farewell to the Rev Father Cummings and to the Sisters of Mercy and to crave an interest in their prayers reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Marlborough Express 26 July 1897 page 2

#Industrial School Case – (Various evidence given by Boys and officials) He had seen a boy named Richard Sheehan confined in the former cell. A boy could stand upright at one end but not at the other clearly understood that he was not to speak of events over five years ago was put in the cell because the Brothers said he was going to run away and was kept there a week he had no intention to run away was not let out day or night not even to class. Brother Finian was in charge of him; there was a mattress in the cell but no chair was also flogged by Brother Wibertus with a supplejack on the bare fleshy part of the back was the only time witness was thrashed in this fashion this was 6 or 8 months after he went to the school or perhaps a year had two meals a day while in the cell. Mr Fell said he had to desire to be captions but the witness should be confined to the period of inquiry. Mr Pope read the departmental entries showing that Stanbridge was committed at Christchurch on 24th March 1894 and admitted to the school in April 1894. Mr Wardell said that unless the events narrated by the witness occurred a year and three months after he had entered the school he could not speak. Mr Bush said the Commissioners recognised the difficulty for boys to fix exact dates. Mr Pope said the boy was licensed out in February 1898 and discharged in December 1898. Examination resumed- Knew the boys Arthur Speed, Richard Sheehan and Maurice Cleary. Did not see but heard them being punished thrashed on the bare skin. Could hear the welting. Was sure Speed and Cleary were punished within the five years, but was not sore about Sheehan reference National Library of NZ papers past website Evening Post newspaper 10 August 1900 page 1
#A one legged man named Richard O'Brien alias Richard Sheehan, alias Joe Edwards was charged at the Magistrate's Court yesterday afternoon before Mr JS Evans, SM with using obscene language in Bridge street on the previous evening. Accused who elected to be dealt with summarily said he was drunk at the time and had no recollection of what had occurred. Evidence was given by Constables Townsend and McGregor and Mr WJ Doyle. Sergt. Mullany said the accused who was an ex industrial school boy had a very bad record. In 1906 he was convicted of assault at the Hutt and sentenced to two months imprisonment. However he cleared out to Australia before the warrant could be executed and had only recently returned to the Dominion. In Westport in March last he was convicted under the name of Joseph Ragg for assault, the Magistrate making some very severe remarks as to his conduct. He had been going under various aliases since he returned to New Zealand. Accused was sentenced to 14 days imprisonment with hard labour. On a charge of damaging a hat the property of William J Doyle (who assisted the constable in arresting accused, who was very violent) accused was ordered to pay 8s 6d, the value of the hat destroyed reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Colonist newspaper 08 May 1912 page 4

#False Pretences - At Lower Hutt this morning before Messrs WC James and Jas. Pearce JPs, Richard Sheehan, alias O'Brien, alias Richard, with nine previous convictions against him was charged with being a rogue and a vagabond in that he did collect money under false pretences. Accused had lost a limb in the South African War. He was found by the police at Lower Hutt soliciting subscriptions on behalf of the Crippled Soldiers Hostel. The Police stated that the case was a bad one in that the man's condition worked on the sympathies of the public at a time when they were charitably disposed. #Doubted a Lady's Word - Margaret Eliza Jane Davidson (36) admitted that she was found drunk on Saturday, that she was an idle and disorderly person and that she stole £1 belonging to Richard Sheehan. It was stated that on Saturday afternoon a constable on duty in Hobson Street had his attention attracted by a struggle between the accused and a one-legged man. When he inquired what the trouble was the man Sheehan said the woman had taken a £1 note belonging to him. Accused denied the allegation but she was arrested for drunkenness and when she got to the police station a £f note fell from her clothes. She told various tales about where she got the note, but eventually admitted the theft. She had been about the street lately drinking and consorting with women of low class. #Law Reports Supreme Court Fortunes of a Hutt Farm Intricate deal - Practically the whole day was occupied in the Supreme Court yesterday in hearing a case in which an Upper Hutt farm of 1935 acres formed the centrepiece. The plaintiff was William Charles Alfred Dimock, and the defendants were Mary Ann Wilkins of Upper Hutt, and the Public Trustee. His Honour the Chief Justice was on the Bench. It appeared from the proceedings that Mrs Wilkins had been owner of the property. In March 1910 there were three mortgages on the land one of £2900 to the Public Trustee, one to Dimock on which £360 was owing and a third of £170 to Veitch and Allan. In addition to these Mrs Wilkins had other liabilities. Dimock had been about to exercise his powers under the mortgage and it was thought that had he done so. Mrs Wilkins would have been left with nothing. Instead of his exercising those powers however, Dimock and Mrs Wilkins had entered into certain arrangements whereby she transferred the whole property to him for a consideration of £4100, including the total amount of all mortgagees, with interest etc. and all the liabilities. At the same time she got two leases back one a house and four acres (for the period of her life) which she was allowed to hold at a nominal rental and also the rest of the property was leased to her for her lifetime at a rental consisting of the payment of certain interest charges. At that time the whole property was valued at over £10,000. In August 1910 (after Dimock had acquired it) a special Government valuation was made and the land was assessed as being worth £7899. About a year ago the Public Trustee was appointed manager of Mrs Wilkins's estate under the Aged and Infirm Persons Act, 1912. The appointment was made on the ground that she was unable through excessive drinking to manage her affairs. The present proceedings were commenced by Dimock and were for cancellation of the lease of the farm on the ground of non-payment of rent and breaches of covenant. The Public Trustee counter claimed that in spite of the form of the transaction, the relationship between Dimock and Mrs Wilkins was that of mortgagee

and mortgagor and that Mrs Wilkins was entitled to redeem her property on repayment to Dimock of the total amount owing to him. It was also put forward in the counterclaim that at the time that the transfer of the property was made Mrs Wilkins (by reason of excessive drinking) was not in a fit state to manage her business and that Dimock used his position as mortgagee to influence her to enter into the transaction and sell her property to him at a considerable under value. In defence it was urged that Mrs Wilkins had a solicitor acting for her at the time of the transaction and that the price given by Dimock was a reasonable one in view of the state of the property market at the time and of the benefits which she received from the leases. It was said also in defence that no influence had been used by Dimock, but that Mrs Wilkins was independently represented by a solicitor and was made thoroughly aware of the nature of the transaction. Mr AAS Menteath appeared for the plaintiff and Messrs JV Macdonald and FE Kelly for the defendants. Some evidence was heard and the case now stands adjourned till 9.30 this morning reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Dominion newspaper 28 March 1914 page 14

#A settlement was arrived at in the Wellington Supreme Court on Saturday before the Chief Justice Sir Robert Stout in a case in which William Charles Alfred Wilkins was plaintiff and Mary Ann Wilkins and the Public Trustee defendants and which involved the ownership of a farm of 194 acres at the Upper Hutt. The property belonged to Mrs Wilkins but as she became heavily involved Dimock paid her a sum of £4105 and took over all liabilities, leasing it to her at a nominal rental during her lifetime. The action was an application to cancel the lease Mrs Wilkins's affairs were taken over by the Public Trustee a year ago and he sought to retain the property for Mrs Wilkins. Today plaintiff's counsel stated that he was prepared to re transfer the land to the Public Trustee on payment of £4105 and all liabilities and costs and his Honour made an order accordingly reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Ashburton Guardian newspaper 30 March 1914 page 4

- 0- James HAGAN born about 1817 died 1868 New Zealand married 16 July 1857 Wellington New Zealand Charlotte DEW born about 1839 died 18 January 1858 Silverstream Upper Hutt New Zealand

#A story was that James Hagan and his brother John were both convicts who were sent to Australia. When they were pardoned (or had done their time) they spent some time in the gold fields of Australia and later they both came to New Zealand and settled in the Hutt Valley. They may have arrived on the ship Vibilia.

#James HAGAN married 16 July 1857 New Zealand Charlotte DEW reference RGO NZ marriage registration 1857 folio website 1857/1595

#Charlotte DEW father was perhaps John Dew

#Charlotte HAGAN died 1858 New Zealand reference RGO NZ death registration 1858 folio website 1858/812 age 19 born about 1839

#On the 18th January 1858 there was torrential rain resulting in a rapid rise of the Hutt River. Three dwellings in the Silver Stream area of Upper Hutt were swept away in the floods and thirteen lives were lost by drowning. By researching newspaper articles and the Coroner's report we discovered more about the flood and the 13 people who drowned. Charlotte Hagan was one of the people who drowned along with her baby son who was only 5 hours old. Mrs Sarah Price who was the nurse that delivered the baby boy also drowned and when her body was found she was found holding the baby tightly in her arms.

#James HAGAN died 1868 New Zealand reference RGO NZ death registration 1868 folio website 1868/6868 age 51 born about 1817

#Sarah HAGAN born 1873 New Zealand reference RGO NZ birth registration 1873 folio website 1873/15501 parents Elizabeth and James Hagan

Another story was that James Hagan (widower) had an illegitimate daughter Sarah who was born on 03 February 1873. Sarah's mother was Mrs Elizabeth Fisher and she was still married at the time. If Sarah's father was the above James Hagan then I have the wrong death date for the above James Hagan.
