Hutt News newspaper 14 July 1943

Obituary - Mr W P Patton - The passing away on Thursday; last at the age of 86 years, of Mr. William Patrick Patton, at his residence, Queens Road, removed a well-known and popular resident of this district. Mr Patton had lived in Lower Hutt for about 46 years and watched with great interest the growth of the Hutt Valley to its present status of Hutt City. Many an interesting story he related of the early days when settlers walked through on their way from Upper Hutt to Wellington to buy their provisions and often he saw them returning carrying a bag of flour on their backs not only the men but also the women. Mr Patton was the first Clerk of the Court to be appointed to the Magistrate's Court in Lower Hutt, from which position, he retired some 20 years ago. During his retirement he enjoyed a large circle of friends and, being a great reader, many a pleasant hour was spent with him. Mr Patton was a son of the late Mr John Patton, postmaster, Castlemaine, County Kerry, Ireland, and a grandson, of the Hon Dr O'Sullivan, direct descendant of the O'Sullivan Bare of The Castle, Bare Haven, Ireland. His wife predeceased him last year, and he is survived by three daughters and one son.
