Supreme Court Sitings Friday 27 March 1846

They were next tried for stealing a pig the property of William Sennox a settler at the Hutt, on Thursday the 26th March. William Sennox deposed that a native chief named Epau and Kumete came to his house together, and that in about one minute Wiremu came up, took a fire-stick, lit his pipe, and went away towards some natives a short distance from the house, after some conversation, and in about five minutes Epau and Kumete went to his pig pound, which was close to his house, and began to cut and wound his pigs with a tomahawk, they killed one about 200lb weight, and carried it away; when they began to kill the pigs several of the natives in the bush who had remained about thirty yards off came up and assisted, Wiremu was not amongst them. On his cross-examination the witness said, he had known Kumete well, and had had dealings with him for the last eight months, during all the time he had known him he was positive he was tattooed on the face and chin, the two single outer lines only had been added, and that lately. His wife proved the same facts, but that Wiremu did not come up so soon as her husband had stated, he was four or five minutes after Epau and Kumete, and he lit his pipe and went away, she did not see him again.

In our obituary column to-day will be found the announcement of the death of a veteran colonist, Mr William Sunnex, who died at the Upper Hutt, on Saturday morning, at the great age of 89 years. Mr Sunnex, who was a sawyer by trade, arrived in this district about 42 years ago, and was consequently one of the earliest settlers. He took up his abode at Petone, where the first settlement was formed, and subsequently lived at Lower Hutt, Taita, and Upper Hutt, in succession, farming and woodcutting. He was a hale and hearty old man, and on his 89th birthday, in December last, he sang half-a-dozen songs in a way, we' are informed, many young men might well envy. His wife, who is some ten years younger, still survives, and there are nine children living.

Magistrates Court – Failing to Support – William Sunnex, Thomas Sunnex and John Sunnex were charged with having neglected to obey an order for the contribution of 6s 8d each towards the weekly support of their aged mother. Wm Sunnex was the only defendant who appeared in person. He said he was a labourer and lived at the Upper Hutt. He had only been able to earn £2 during the past two months and it was quite impossible for him to pay 6s 8d per week towards the support of his mother. His worship decided to adjourn the case against this defendant until next week. Thomas Sunnex's case was struck out the accused having paid up the amount in arrears. His Worship decided to hear the charge against John Sunnex at Masterton on the 15th instant.

Evening Post newspaper 07 May 1886

Three brothers named John, William, and Thomas Sunnex were summoned to the Magistrate's Court this morning for disobedience of magisterial orders for contribution towards the support of their mother, Eliza Sunnex. In the case of Thomas, it was stated that the arrears had been discharged. John Sunnex appeared, and pleaded misfortune as the reason for his default, producing a letter from his mother, who represented that the other brothers were the most capable of maintaining her, and asked that the order should be enforced against them. His Worship ordered the defendant to pay off the arrears (£10 5s) at the rate of £1 per week, as well as keep up current payments. The case was adjourned for a fortnight, and adjournments will be continued from time to time as long as the payments are observed. William Sunnex did not answer the crier's call, and was sentenced to one month's imprisonment for disobedience, and ordered to enter into his own recognizance in the sum of £25 and find one surety of like amount, for future payments, in default of finding surety, to undergo six months' imprisonment.

New Zealand Times newspaper 10 December 1887

A case in which William, John and Thomas Sunnex were charged with failing to contribute towards the support of their mother was adjourned until next day. The amount in arrears were stated to be £22 13s 4d, £16 10s and £10 13s 4d respectively.

Evening Post newspaper 10 December 1887

In the case against three brothers named Sunnex in reference to arrears on an order for support of their mother his Worship modified the order against Thomas Sunnex from 6s 8d per week to £1 per month and adjourned the case against the other brothers for further enquiry.

New Zealand Times newspaper 12 December 1887

The case against the brothers Sunnex, of failing to comply with an order of the Court for the support of their mother, was again called on. Thomas Sunnex paid in part of his arrears, and his Worship agreed to lessen the amount of his contributions from 6s 8d per week, to £1 per month. The case was further adjourned in order that inquiries might be made respecting the other two brothers, who did not appear. Mr Gray appeared for Thomas Sunnex.

William Sunnex was charged with having failed to comply with a maintenance order for the payment of 5s per week toward the support of his mother. The arrears were stated to be £29. The defendant pleaded guilty, and stated that he was unable to meet the payments in consequence of his inability to obtain employment. His Worship remitted the arrears, and reduced the order to 2s 6d. John Sunnex, similarly charged, who was in arrears to the extent of £23 3s, was dealt with in a like manner.

#Another respected old settler passed away at the Wellington Hospital on Thursday in the person of Mrs Charles Mudgway, whose name is associated with many historic events connected with this city. Her husband, Mr Charles Mudgway, arrived with his parents in the ship Catherine Stuart Forbes in Wellington in June 1841, and was married here some years afterwards. They resided at Pipitea Point for many years, and whilst living there the rebel natives looted their dwelling-place. Afterwards Mr Mudgway removed to the Hutt, where he took part in fighting the Maoris, and claims to have shot the first Maori in an engagement under Lieutenant White, of the 96th Regiment. Mr Mudgway also formed, part of the gang who were engaged in making the first road undertaken by the New Zealand Company namely, from Pipitua Point to Kaiwarra. His wife, whose decease we are noticing, was with him during his early trials, and for the last 26 years they have been living together at Porirua. We believe we are correct in stating that Mrs Mudgway, who was a daughter of the late Mr Sunnex, of the Hutt, leaves a host of relatives, eight of her own progeny, 32 grandchildren, and 50 great grandchildren, making altogether 90 descendants, not including other near relatives, all of whom reside in the Wellington Provincial District. #The Fatal Accidents at the Otaki Races - The following particulars are given in the Manawatu Herald of yesterday - " It appears that Charles Mudgway was riding at a hard gallop round the course, and was met by four ladies on horseback, viz., two of the Misses McDonald, of Horowheuuu, Miss Jenkins, of Otaki, and Miss Cameron, who was on a visit to Mr Jenkins, to whom she is related. Mudgway was riding along 'full tear,' whilst the ladies were going along at a sharp canter. The former, being unable to guide his horse past the ladies, struck Miss Jenkins on the leg, and glanced off, meeting Miss Cameron, both horses and riders striking violently. Miss Cameron and Mudgway both fell to the ground, and the latter, dropping on his head, a concussion of the brain ensued, from which he died in a short time. Miss Cameron was badly bruised, and was compelled to take to her bed at once, but we hear is now improving rapidly. Mudgway was until lately a resident of the Hutt, but his friends are said to reside at Porirua. He was a stout man, 35 years of age. He was a widower, having some time since lost his wife, and by his death five children, all boys, are orphaned reference Papers past website New Zealand Times newspaper 28 January 1880

#Divorce Cases – Wellington 07 August Before Mr Justice Chapman today orders for the restitution of conjugal rights were made in the cases of Wm G Lintern v Emily Lintern reference Papers past website Press newspaper 08 August 1908
#Divorce Court – Mr Justice Chapman had a sitting in divorce today to deal with a number of undefended cases. The loneliness of Korokoro on the hills west of Petone was attributed as the cause of a case between Wm George Lintern and Emily E Lintern. The husband for whom Mr Wilford appeared petitioned for restitution of conjugal rights. In the course of his evidence Lintern said his wife left him on 07 February 1908 because the place was too lonely. He had tried to get her back but she refused to go. In answer to his Honour Lintern said he was a labourer and that he had known his wife for three months prior to the marriage. An order was made for restitution the wife to return within fourteen days after the service of order reference Papers past website Evening Post newspaper 07 August 1908
#Supreme Court Divorce - Restitution of Conjugal Rights - At a sitting in Divorce yesterday, presided over by Mr Justice Chapman, a number of undefended cases were dealt with. Lintern v Lintern - William George Lintern, labourer Korokoro, petitioned for a decree ordering restitution of conjugal lights against his wife Emily Essa Lintern. Mr Wilford appeared on behalf of the petitioner and respondent did not file any defence or put in an appearance. Petitioner deposed that he was married to respondent in July 1937. There was no child of the marriage. In February last respondent left her home and his efforts to induce her to return had failed. Her reason for leaving him was that the place was too lonely. To his Honour - Was acquainted with respondent for only three months prior to the date of marriage. He and his wife had not quarrelled. His Honour - There could not have been very strong attachment between them. Apparently they did not suit each other. Counsel - Evidently all the love was on one side. Christina Clements, sister of petitioner, stated that respondent had told her she was going away because the place was too lonely. Petitioner had a comfortable residence and there were neighbours in the locality. Respondent had always received kindly treatment from her husband. An order was made requiring respondent to return to petitioner within fourteen days after service of the order reference Papers past website Dominion newspaper 08 August 1908.

#Stories – a website recorded Mary as having a daughter Mary Ann Sunnex born 07 January 1864 Upper Hutt baptised 25 May 1865 St John's church Trentham Upper Hutt died 25 May 1865 New Zealand but this child's mother was Emily Sunnex and there were no details of father = comment the child's mother Emily was the younger of Mary Ann Sunnex - perhaps Mary and John Thomas were the godparents of the child Mary Ann Sunnex

#Story – some website sites give husband as Robert CLARKE [Robert Clarke married 1851 to Sarah Sunnex] and another website husband as Henry WATTS [Henry Edward Watts married 1857 Mary Ann Resticaux] & another website recorded Mary's husband as John THOMAS - there is a Mary Ann THOMAS who died 23 April 1865 Sydney Australia age matches but this requires further research

#Website story = she is not the Mary Ann SUNNEX who died 22 January 1898 aged 49 years buried Greytown cemetery as this Mary is the wife of Thomas Sunnex and daughter of Sarah and William Thomas Robins.

#Mrs T Sunnex died rather suddenly at her residence at Belvedere last night. An inquest will probably be held reference Papers past website Wairarapa Daily Times 18 July 1893

#Sad Poisoning Fatality - Mrs Sunnex, wife of Mr T Sunnex, of Belvedere (whose death we briefly recorded in our last issue) died through misadventure. Deceased was suffering from a complication of diseases and she knew that a fatal termination was certain at an early period, she having an internal cancer and heart complaint. Dr Dixon, who was attending her, saw her on Monday and she asked for a further supply of the cough mixture which he had prescribed for her and he promised to prepare it for her. According to the Observer, in the same house one of the lads was laid up with a swelling on the foot, and Dr Dickson said he would send him an embrocation of belladonna and glycerine with which he was to paint the affected part. The doctor on returning home prepared the embrocation and cough mixture and they were duly called for by one of the children and taken away. At 3 o'clock an urgent message was brought for Dr Dickson to attend on Mrs Sunnex who was taken worse. Dr Dickson on arriving at the house found Mrs Sunnex in a state of coma. He saw at a glance what was wrong, and looking at the bottle found the wrong labels had been put on them and a |teaspoonful of the embrocation had been administered in mistake for the cough mixture and her insensibility was due to narcotic poisoning. He applied the prescribed remedies and emptied the stomach, but failed to revive the poor woman. Dr Bey was telegraphed for, but their united efforts failed to revive her, and she died at half past ten that night reference Papers past website Wairarapa Daily Times newspaper 19 July 1893
