Bush Advocate newspaper 28 February 1905

There passed away at Dannevirke last week an old colonist and one who in her time had borne the full heat and burden of the day. We allude to the late Mrs Sophia Whitehead relict of the late Mr James Stephen Whitehead who died in 1879. The late Mrs Whitehead was the youngest daughter of Mr Thomas Shirley who arrived at Wellington in the ship Aurora in 1841. Mr Shirley (who died about 15 years ago aged 87) remained in that province till 1855 and during his stay he passed through the first Maori war and as one of the militia witnessed many of the exciting scenes of Rangihata's time. The family all participated in the troublesome times of those days and it is related that on one occasion the timely information given by a Maori woman to the late Mrs Whitehead enabled the military to be sent for and so prevented a contemplated raid by the natives. Mrs Whitehead was married at St Peter's Church Wellington in 1853 and lived at the Hutt for some years. Thence with her husband she proceeded to Canterbury where they remained for some years afterwards finally settling in the Waipawa district in Hawke's Bay. The late Mrs Whitehead was a typical representative of the sturdy pioneers and was always held in the highest esteem by her family and friends. She is survived by a family of five sons and five daughters the former comprising Messrs John Stephen and Richard Whitehead of Dannevirke, and Richard and Edward Whiteheads the Weber district. The daughters comprise Mrs Alf Herbert and Mrs John Sergeant of Weber, Mrs Joseph Cossey Eltham, Mrs G Armstrong Te Nui and Mrs J Edwards of Eketahuna. There are 50 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.
