New Zealand Spectator and Cooks Straits Guardian newspaper Saturday 07 March 1846

On Sunday last the intruding natives commenced, and successfully carried out a most daring and systematic plan of plundering the settlers on the Waiwetu and the Hutt. They visited each house in small bands and completely stripped the inmates of everything they possessed, leaving them nothing but the clothes they had on at the time of their visit. What they were not able to carry away they wantonly destroyed on the spot, breaking the furniture, demolishing the windows of the houses, and committing all sorts of outrages, and threatening the settlers with instant death, if they made any noise or attempted to give the alarm. In one instance where resistance was offered, on a signal made by one of the natives, their numbers were immediately reinforced so as to render opposition fruitless. They did not burn the houses or the crops of the settlers for fear of attracting attention to their proceedings. The following is a correct list of those who were robbed by the natives.

It is interesting to note that the newspaper article states that Francis had a wife but I have been unable to locate any New Zealand marriage. I believe this was an error. The newspapers of the day give a full account of the time before and after the incident.

Geo Whiteman being sworn said

My claim is for being in the war in 1846 or 1847. I was all through the war in the Hutt Volunteers. I was kept as a regular soldier for 15 or 16 months. I was under fire. I was at the taking of the pah at Pahautanui & in Horokiwi. We had a brush with them in the Hutt Valley where Mr Mabey's place is. I think I served for 9 years in the Militia & 2 years in the Volunteer Coy at the Hutt. I think I was 15 months in the Lower Hutt Militia & several years in the No 3 Coy of Hutt Militia under Capt. Cruickshank. In 1872 by recommendation of Govt. it was disbanded & formed into a volunteer corps, in which I served until it was disbanded in 1874, two years later. I have the N.Z. war medal. All the papers in connection with the Coy have been burned, as Capt. Cruickshank had his house burned down. I cannot give you any dates, as it is so long ago.

Evening Post newspaper 18 April 1870

Upper Hutt Militia - (From our own Correspondent.) Saturday, 16th April. The members of this corps met this forenoon, at the range adjoining Mr Waldin's Criterion Hotel, to compete for a splendid breach-loading Enfield rifle, presented by their captain, James Cruickshanks, Esq. Eight competitors fired. We subjoin a list of the result

George Whiteman 35	Wm. Kay 32
Peter Atkin 29	A. Cruickshanks 39
Francis Whiteman 37	Ed. Butler 22
Wm Sinnox 20	John Whiteman 50

John Whiteman, as will be seen, carried off the prize, his firing being very good. Afterwards the members had a scratch match four on each side. I may mention that amongst the scores there were two 44's, one 43, one 41, and one 40. In both contests live rounds were fired at 300, 400, and 500 yards respectively. Mr F. Whiteman distinguished himself by making five bulls eyes at 400 yds. in succession during the last event.

#Sudden Death at Mungaroa – The death occurred at Mungaroa yesterday of an old resident of the Hutt Valley in the person of Mr Francis Whiteman at the age of 59 years. The circumstances of his death are unusually sad. On the Tuesday evening while returning home from Akatarawa (where he is part owner of a sawmill) to attend the wedding of one of his daughters which was to take place on the day following he was seized it is supposed with a paralytic fit and thrown from his horse. When picked up he was found unconscious in which state he lingered on for some hours and then died. It was not deemed necessary to hold an inquest a doctor's certificate being furnished as to cause of death. The wedding ceremony was postponed. Deceased was widely known throughout the valley his father the late Mr George Whiteman having been one of the pioneer settlers of the district. One of his brothers is Mr John Whiteman chairman of the Hutt County Council reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Evening Post newspaper 03 November 1910 page 6

#Whiteman v Whiteman - Emily Anne Whiteman asked for a dissolution of her marriage with William Thomas Whiteman the ground of the petition being adultery. Petitioner said the parties were married at Onehunga on 28th April 1886. They came to live in Christchurch where the parties separated in 1901. Hannah Talbot gave evidence as to respondent living at her house in 1909 with a woman other than petitioner as his wife. A decree nisi with leave to make absolute in three months was granted. Petitioner was granted custody of the children of the marriage and also costs on the lowest scale reference National Library of NZ Papers past website Press newspaper 29 November 1911 page 2

#Mrs Whiteman's Worries - Another Lady in the house - The story told by Emily Anne Whiteman when placed in the box was short and to the point. She contracted to live with William Thomas Whiteman as his missus in 1886 at Onehunga. Some time before a lady named Bates became Mayor of that interesting seaport. Afterwards they tried Christchurch as a place of residence but the experiment proved so disastrous that they separated in 1901. For eight years afterwards they followed their own paths when (1909) William Thomas made a mistake. He took another lady into the house of Hannah Talbot and they lived there as man and wife. Hannah turned up to mention the circumstance to his Honor with the result that a decree nisi was granted.
