

ST JOSEPH'S CEMETERY – UPPER HUTT

Situated corner Main Street and Pine Avenue Upper Hutt

St Joseph's original church building commenced on 16 December 1863 and was opened February 1864. This historical church was demolished in April 1961 to make way for the new St Joseph's church which was opened on 29 August 1965. The new church was built over some of the graves of Upper Hutt's early settlers. All headstones were removed in 1970 and a memorial plaque was installed on the outside wall at the back of the church with a sacred grassed area left as a tribute to those who were buried the churchyard. The original graves date from 1871 to 1981 but the plaque on the back wall dates from 1877 to 1991. Additional names and dates have been added to the Memorial Plaque and will be added (1991-2012) to this index when information becomes available.

In the Upper Hutt 'Leader' newspaper dated 25 August 1965 there is an article with a photograph of the original church including some graves. This newspaper is held in the Upper Hutt City Library Archives newspaper collection.

The foundation stone for this index was created from burial records and memorial plaque transcriptions compiled by Shirley Comeskey and Robyn Tuckett with additional information researched by Lynly Yates for the Hutt Valley Biographical Index and Genealogies (HBIG) website project.

For additional information about the church and burial records please write to the Archivist, Catholic Centre, P O Box 1937, Wellington. The Catholic Archives is situated in Hill Street Wellington.
