

1853-1896 UPPER HUTT ELECTORAL ROLLS

The first New Zealand Election took place in 1853. The qualification to vote in the first European Roll was that a male was over the age of 21 years with minimal property. In 1867 the Maori seat in parliament was created. In 1879 qualification extended to include all male 21 and over, who either owned property or had lived in New Zealand for at least one year and in the electorate for at least six months. In 1893 Women were given the vote and the age for male or female was 21 year of age.

The New Zealand Electoral districts and boundaries changed through the years and the Hutt Valley district was:

1853 to 1896 Hutt Electoral Roll
1893 to 1902 Suburbs of Wellington	1896 to 1902 Otaki
1902 to 1975 Hutt	1911 to 1919 Wellington Suburbs & Country district
1919 to 1938 Otaki	1928 to 1943 Wairarapa

In 1938 the Electoral districts and boundaries changed and the Upper Hutt district was:

1938 to 1943 Wairarapa	1946 to 1951 Otaki
1954 to 1996 Heretaunga	1996 onwards Rimutaka
