Well-Known Rugby Player Died Yesterday - One of Buller's outstanding Rugby players in the 1930s Mr George Leslie Stuart died in the Buller Hospital yesterday. He was well-known resident of Seddonville. Mr Stuart was born at Long Flat, Braidwood, New South Wales, in 1896. He came to New Zealand with his family in 1900 and resided at Kumara. In 1903 the family moved to Karamea where Mr Stuart completed his schooling. He then went to work in the Cape Foul wind district. In 1914 Mr Stuart joined the Army and left New Zealand in the 10th Reinforcements. He served for the next four years in France. On return to New Zealand he settled in Seddonville and began working as a surface man on the Railway. He then worked in the co-operative mines and later in the bush for Mr W Mumm. It was while working in the bush that Mr Stuart, together with Messrs Mumm and G Muholland, made a hazardous journey up the Mokihinui River on the day after the earthquake to rescue a man marooned in the area. While in Mokihinui Gorge the party discovered a tremendous dam had blocked the river and great areas of water and silt were forming. Later Mr Stuart returned with a party to use explosives on this dam to relieve the township of Seddonville from the danger of flooding. In later years Mr Stuart worked for the Charming Creek Coal Mining Company. Mr Stuart was well known for his Rugby ability. A lock forward of a rugged type, he represented Buller for many years. He played in South Island trials several times. He played in many combined minor union teams. One game in which he was outstanding was the curtain raiser to the North Island v South Island match in Wellington in 1929. A combined Buller-West Coast team beat a Nelson-Marlborough-Golden Bay Motueka side. In 1930 Mr Stuart was in the victorious Buller team, which won the Seddon Shield at Motueka. The team included two men who were later to become All Blacks Messrs G Gilbert and E Holder, and South Island trialist Messrs V. Goodall and B Scandrett. Mr Stuart played most of his Rugby for the Mokihinui Rugby Club. But also played for Rangers and Rovers. Mr Stuart was noted for being a keen committee worker in recent years at Seddonville. Besides his wife Jean, Mr Stuart is survived by two sons, Gilbert (Johnsonville), and Peter (Blenheim) and two daughters, Jean (Mrs R Dawe Hector) and Shirley (Seddonville)
