Wellington Independent newspaper 03 May 1848

An unfortunate man named Cottle who for the last two or three months has been confined in the Lunatic Asylum expired suddenly on Wednesday last. An inquest was held on the following day at the gaol on view of the body before J Fitzgerald Esquire Coroner and a respectable jury and after a patient investigation a verdict of "Died by the visitation of God", was returned. Deceased who was a widower has left two children aged ten and twelve to lament his loss.

Manawatu Standard newspaper 20 February 1918

Obituary – A Wellington paper records the death of Mr Charles Joseph COTTLE. The sad event occurred at Cottleville Terrace Thorndon on Sunday week. The late Mr Cottle who was born at Swainswick near Bath Somerset England on 22nd February 1838 arrived in the colony with his parents by ship Kathleen Stuart Forbes on 12 June 1841. In his early days he carried on business as a blacksmith having served his apprenticeship with Mr John Mason on Lambton Quay later going through to the diggings at Collingwood. He next took up farming at Upper Belmont and at Otaki finally returning to Wellington some twenty five years ago and taking up his residence at Cottleville Terrace. The late Mr Cottle had a family of nine sons and six daughters. His wife and two of the sons predeceased him. The surviving sons are – Messrs J J Cottle (Kopuaranga), E W Cottle (Trentham), J R Cottle (Te Horo), C H Cottle (Levin), A B Cottle (Mount Bruce), W A Cottle (Taita), and A E Cottle (Hopelands). The daughters are Mesdames J W Fox (Rongotea), E E Goss (Nireaha), H V Futter, T M Burke, H F Wright and G S Read (all of Wellington). There are 67 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. The deceased who was universally respected was a familiar figure in the neighbour where he so long resided

Re-Union of Pioneer Family - The descendants of the late Mr Charles Joseph Cottle and Mrs Mary Ann Cottle well-known pioneer's settlers in the Wellington district held an interesting family reunion at Te Horo recently the guests of honour being the eldest son and daughter Mr Joseph Cottle and Mrs Hannah Fox. The reunion took the form of a dinner and social evening and in speaking on behalf of the family Mr Don McIntyre paid tribute to the memory of the late Mr and Mrs C J Cottle. The former was born at Swanswick-near-Bath in 1839. He arrived at Wellington in 1841 on board the Catherine Stuart Forbes and died in 1918. His wife was born in Wellington in 1843 and died in 1905. They are survived by 12 of their children all of whom were present at the reunion. They are Mr Joseph Cottle Levin, Mr John Cottle Te Horo, Mr Edward Cottle Trentham, Mr Charles Cottle Levin, Mr William Cottle Trentham, Mr Arthur Cottle Levin, Mrs Hannah Fox Ohau, Mrs Mary Goss Eketahuna, Mrs Salena Futter, Mrs Ellen Burke and Mrs Alice Wright all of Wellington and Mrs Evelyn Reid Auckland. They are also survived by 76 grand-children, 136 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren. The party proved highly successful and members of the family gathered from all parts of the North Island including representatives of the families of the late Alfred (Pat) and James Cottle

#James Ville COTTLE 1874-1912 We have to record the death at his residence Silverstream of Mr James Villa Cottle at the age of thirty-eight. Deceased was the sixth son of the well-known pioneer settler Mr C Cottle of Wellington. His is the second death in the family of nine sons and six daughters, his brother Frederick having predeceased him a few years ago. Deceased married Elizabeth daughter of Mr Charles McIntyre a Wellington veteran who bore him two sons and two daughters the elder boy having recently left school. Mr Cottle has been in failing health for some two years lung trouble having followed upon a severe attack of influenza. He was sitting outside in the sun on Monday and at 11.20 the same night was no more. The immediate cause of death was haemorrhage of the lung. The funeral took place on Thursday at the Taita cemetery the service being performed by the Rev J H Sykes. "Jim" Cottle was deservedly popular and the thirty-odd vehicles of friends which followed his remains to their last resting place bore testimony to the esteem in which he was held in the district reference Papers past website Hutt Valley Independent newspaper 20 April 1912
