Dairy Farm - To close Estate Accounts - GA Fairbrother is favoured with instructions from the Executors in the estates of the late Thomas Reid and the late Mary Ann Reid to sell by public auction at The Carterton Market on Saturday 16th December 1899 at 1.30 o'clock

215 Acres at Clareville Wairarapa at present occupied by Mr Foss To be sold subject to existing lease ending 1st September 1902 at yearly rent of £130. The land is all well grassed, fenced, and subdivided into five paddocks and it effectively watered by beautiful over-flowing streams. Buildings include an up-to-date dwelling, seven rooms and scullery, a dairy and a cottage. The land fronts the main road to Gladstone, and is within a mile from railway station, post office, school, and the dairy factory. Either as a farm or an investment this property affords a fine opening.

Also - 6 Acres at Clareville, with dwelling of six rooms and pantry, and a stable and coachhouse. The buildings are in perfect order. This property is within a few steps of the Clareville railway station, the post office and the school and is in a healthy locality with good water.
