  - #A pretty wedding took place at St Davis Presbyterian Church Upper Hutt on Wednesday 20th August the contacting parties being Ralph Scholes eldest son of Alfred Scholes of Mangaroa and Elwy Myrtle fifth daughter of the later Mr Cleaver of Trentham. The nuptial knot was securely tied by the Rev F J Usher. The church was decorated for the occasion and a floral bell was suspended over the spot where the ceremony took place. The bride who was given away by her brother Horace wore a dress of cream de Chien trimmed with crème oriental trimming, The bridesmaids were Misses Matilda Scholes and ettie Cleaver sisters of the bride and groom respectively who wore cream radiant dresses trimmed with guipure lace. The bride wore the usual veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet. Len Scholes brother of the bridegroom officiated as best man. As the bridal party left the church the wedding march was played by Mrs W W Clifford. A reception was held after the ceremony at the Oddfellows Hall Trentham when the customary toasts were duly honoured. The presents which were numerous and valuable included a handsome silver tea service a gift to the bridegroom from the members of the Wallaceville Presbyterian Church. The happy couple left for a southern seaside resort to spend the honeymoon. The bride's travelling dress was a navy blue tailor-made serge costume and she wore a grey crinoline straw hat with a white ostrich feather reference National Library of NZ papers past website Hutt Valley Independent newspaper 06 September 1913 page 3

#The death of Mr John Scholes of Newmarket a very old colonist is announced today. Mr Scholes arrived in Auckland 49 years ago from Home in the ship Westminster and experienced all the vicissitudes of life which fell to the lot of the pioneer colonists. He settled for a time in various parts of the colonies and was at one time a prospector and miner at the Ballarat gold diggings in Victoria. He was engaged for some considerable time in the trade between here and Australia and was also the first partner in Auckland with the late Mr Thos. Hancock of the Captain Cook Brewery Newmarket. He was the proprietor of the old Royal George Hotel Newmarket in its earliest days and was very well known through his connection with quite a number of enterprises in the old days reference Papers past website Auckland Star newspaper 11 April 1891 page 4

#Obituary – The death of Mr J T Scholes for many years' accountant and later manager of the Westland Timber Co occurred at his home Queens Road on 15th inst. Mr Scholes was born at Petone in 1879. His parents later took up farming land in Wainui where he was educated under Mr A N Burns late inspector of schools. As a young man Mr Scholes made an intense study of farming in all its branches, but later drifted into timber trade with which he has been associated for the last twenty-seven years. The deceased was very highly respected by a large circle of friends and had one of the most kindly and retiring dispositions and was always ready to give a helping hand in any deserving cause. He took a keen interest in sport and was a member of the Hutt Gun Club and the Hutt Bowling Club and was keen fisherman. He was executive member of Lower Hutt Chamber of Commerce. He is survived by his widow and daughter and three brothers and one sister – Miss Scholes and Messrs F and J Scholes of Wainui and Mr W Scholes of Rongatai. The funeral took place at Tai ta cemetery Archdeacon Hansell officiating reference papers past website Hutt news newspaper 28 September 1932
